occupation within the Township of Tilden in the year 1987 after the effective date of this Ordinance, and in each following calendar year. Each natural person who exercises such privilege for any length of time in any calendar year beginning with the

the tax in accordance with the provisions hereof; provided, the tax hereby levied shall not be imposed upon any natural person whose total income during the taxable year is any figure less than or equal to Five Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($5,000.00).

Section 4. Collection Through Employers.

1. Each employer shall register with the tax collector the employer's name, address, and other information the tax collector may require within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of this Ordinance or within fifteen (15) days after first becoming an employer.

2. For each taxpayer employed for any length of time after the effective date of this Ordinance and on or before March 31 of the current tax year, each employer shall deduct the tax from compensation payable to the taxpayer, file a return on a form prescribed by the tax collector, and pay to said tax collector the full amount of taxes deducted on or before April 30 of the current tax year. For each taxpayer for whom no prior deduction has been made, who is employed after the effective date of this Ordinance and in any of the three (3) month periods ending June 30, September 30, and December 31, of the current tax year, each employer shall deduct the tax from compensation payable to the taxpayer, file a return on a form prescribed by the tax collector, and pay said collector the full amount of all taxes deducted, on or before July 31 or October 31 of the current tax year, or January 31 of the following year, respectively.

Any employer who fails to deduct the tax as required by this section, or who fails to pay such tax to the tax collector, shall be liable for such tax in full, without deduction of the commission hereinafter provided, as though the tax had originally been levied against such employer.

5. As to employees who present official receipts evidencing prior payment of the tax imposed hereby either directly or by collection through employers, the employer shall not deduct the tax but shall maintain adequate records concerning such employees.

6. Each employer may deduct and retain a commission equal to two percent (2%) of the total amount of tax collected through the employer pursuant to this section.

Section 5. Direct Payment by Taxpayers. Every taxpayer who is self-employed or whose tax for any other reason is not collected under Section 4 of this Ordinance shall file a return on a form prescribed by the tax collector and shall pay the tax directly to said collector. Each such taxpayer who first becomes subject to the tax after the effective date of this Ordinance, and on or before March 31 of the current tax year, shall file the return and pay the tax on or before April 30 of the current tax year, and each such taxpayer who first becomes subject to the tax after March 31 of the current tax year, shall file the return and pay the tax on or before July 31 or October 31 of the current tax year, or January 31 of the following year, whichever of such payment dates first occurs at least thirty (30) days after the taxpayer becomes subject to the tax.

Section 6. Nonresident Taxpayers. Both residents and nonresident taxpayers shall, by virtue of engaging in an occupation within the Township of Tilden, be subject to the tax and the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 7. Administration and Enforcements. The tax collector shall collect and receive the taxes, interests, fines and penalties imposed by this Ordinance, and shall maintain records showing the amounts received and the dates such amounts were received. The tax collector shall prescribe and issue all forms necessary for the administration of the tax and may adopt and enforce regulations relating to any matter pertaining to the administration of this Ordinance. The tax collectors and agents designated by him may examine the records of any employer and/or supposed employer or of any taxpayer in order to ascertain the tax due or verify the accuracy of any return. Every employer or supposed employer and every taxpayer or supposed taxpayer shall give the tax collector and any agent designated by him all means, facilities and opportunity for the examinations hereby authorized.

Section 8. Collection. The tax collector shall collect by suit or otherwise, all taxes, interests, costs, fines, and penalties due under this Ordinance and unpaid. If for any reason, any tax is not paid when due, interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per year on the amount of unpaid taxes and an additional penalty of one-half of one percent ( $1/2$  of 1%) of the amount of unpaid tax, for each month or fraction of month during which the tax remains unpaid shall be added and collected. Whenever suit is brought for the recovery of unpaid tax, the taxpayer shall, in addition, be liable for the costs of collection as well as for interest and penalties. The tax collector may accept payment under protest of the tax claimed by the Township of Tilden in any case where any person disputes the Township of Tilden's claim for the tax. If a court of competent jurisdiction thereafter decides that there has been overpayment to the tax collector, the tax collector shall refund the amount of the overpayment to the person who paid under protest. Any action instituted for such judicial determination shall be instituted with two (2) years of the last day of the period for which the tax is disputed or claim made.

All refunds shall be made in conformity with the procedure prescribed by the Board of Supervisors.

Section 9. Penalties. An employer or taxpayer who makes a false or untrue statement on any return required by this Ordinance, who refuses inspection of his records in his custody and control setting forth his employees subject to this tax, who fails or refuses to file a return required by this Ordinance, or who violates any other provisions of this Ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not more than Three Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($300.00), and/or to imprisonment for a term not to exceed ninety (90) days.

Section 10. Repealer. All ordinances or parts of ordinances which are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 11. Severability. If any sentence, clause, section, or part of this Ordinance is for any reason found to be unconstitutional, illegal, or invalid, such unconstitutionality, illegality, or invalidity shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions, sentences, clauses, sections, or parts of this Ordinance. It is hereby declared as the intent of the Board of Supervisors that this Ordinance would have been adopted had such unconstitutional, illegal, or invalid sentence, clause, section, or part thereof not been included herein.
